Count 5: Witness Tampering

Defendant.

18 U.S.C. § 1512(b)(1)

Maximum Penalty:

20 years

Maximum Fine:

Not to exceed $250,000

Supervised Release:

Up to 3 years

Rule 11 Plea Agreement

Pursuant to Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, defendant Bailey Rose Swiecicki and the government agree as follows:

1. Guilty Plea

A. Count of Conviction

Defendant will enter a plea of guilty to Count Five of the 1st Superseding Indictment, which charges her with Witness Tampering, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1512(b)(1).

B. Elements of Offenses

The elements of Count Five are as follows:

1. Defendant knowingly used intimidation, threats, or corrupt persuasion against the victim or attempted to do so; and
2. defendant did so with the intent to prevent, influence, or delay the testimony of the victim at a federal grand jury proceeding.

C. Factual Basis for Guilty Plea

The following facts are a sufficient and accurate basis for defendant's guilty pleas:

On or about October 30, 2016, Makyo Henry George-Dye entered the home of I.C., whom he shares a child-in-common with, in violation of a court order.

While inside George-Dye punched I.C. in the face causing her head to strike the wall. The assault caused swelling and pain to I.C. which lasted for several days.

I.C. and her mother told George-Dye to leave or they were going to call the police.

George-Dye responded by telling I.C. that she deserved it and then left the residence. This occurred at 2385 South Isabella Road, Mt. Pleasant, Michigan, on the Isabella Reservation which is within Indian country.

I.C. then packed up some things, strapped her son into his car seat, and got in her car to leave the residence. George-Dye, whom I.C. did not even know was still present, then jumped into her car and refused to get out. George-Dye said that he was not going to get out of I.C.'s car until she drove him to Jamestown

Apartments. While in the car with her, George-Dye got loud, said “this is what you get” and “you pushed me to my limits.”

Eventually, per George-Dye’s orders, I.C. drove from her residence to the Jamestown Apartments approximately 1.7 miles away. Once at Jamestown Apartments, I.C. stopped the car and told George-Dye to get out. George-Dye opened the door and then turned back to I.C. and strangled her to the point that she had trouble breathing. George-Dye grabbed I.C.’s neck with his hand, pushed her back into the seat, and squeezed I.C.’s neck. George-Dye also struck I.C. in the top of the head. I.C. was then able to use her legs to push George-Dye out of the car and I.C. then drove off.

George-Dye was charged in federal court via a complaint with interstate domestic violence and domestic assault by an habitual offender on November, 4, 2016. George-Dye was arrested and jailed in the Bay County Jail on November 5, 2016. Once George-Dye was in jail for the above mentioned October 30, 2016 assaults, George-Dye conspired with a cell mate, Demarcus King, to have King’s girlfriend, Bailey Swiecicki, contact I.C. to either get her to refuse to testify before the grand jury or lie to them about what happened. King had a visitation on November 5, 2016, where he showed her a note written by George-Dye instructing Swiecicki to contact I.C. to persuade I.C. to either refuse to testify or lie at grand jury on the case against George-Dye. After the visitation, Swiecicki called I.C. and passed on the message. Later in the day, still on November 5, 2016, Swiecicki texted I.C. in reference to I.C.'s testimony before the grand jury on the George-Dye case. Swiecicki said "it's best to say 'I don't recall.'" On November 7, 2016, Swiecicki sent another text to I.C. that I.C. "should say no to everything when/if it goes to trial." Swiecicki sent an identical text message again to I.C. on November 8, 2016.

2. Sentencing Guidelines

A. Standard of Proof

The Court will find sentencing factors by a preponderance of the evidence.

B. Agreed Guideline Range

There are no sentencing guideline disputes. Except as provided below, the defendant's guideline range is 12-18 months, as set forth on the attached worksheets. If the Court finds:

1. That defendant's criminal history category is higher than reflected on the attached worksheets, or
2. that the offense level should be higher because, after pleading guilty, defendant made any false statement to or withheld information from her probation officer; otherwise demonstrated a lack of acceptance of responsibility for her offense; or obstructed justice or committed any crime, and if any such finding results in a guideline range higher than 12-18 months, the higher guideline range becomes the agreed range. However, if the Court finds that defendant is a career offender as defined under the sentencing guidelines or other federal law, and that finding is not already reflected in the attached worksheets, this paragraph does not authorize a corresponding increase in the agreed range.

Neither party may take a position concerning the applicable guidelines that is different than any position of that party as reflected in the attached worksheets, except as necessary to the Court's determination regarding subsections 1) and 2), above.

3. Sentence

The Court will impose a sentence pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3553, and in doing so must consider the sentencing guideline range.

A. Imprisonment

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11(c)(1)(C), the sentence of imprisonment in this case may not exceed the top of the sentencing guideline range as determined by the court pursuant to this agreement.

B. Supervised Release

A term of supervised release, if imposed, follows the term of imprisonment. There is no agreement on supervised release. In other words, the Court may impose any term of supervised release up to the statutory maximum term, which in this case is 3 years. The agreement concerning imprisonment described above in Paragraph 3A does not apply to any term of imprisonment that results from any later revocation of supervised release.

C. Special Assessment

Defendant will pay a special assessment of $100.00 and must provide the government with a receipt for the payment before sentence is imposed.

D. Fine

There is no agreement as to fines.

E. Restitution

Restitution is not applicable in this case.

4. Use of Withdrawn Guilty Plea

If the Court allows defendant to withdraw her guilty plea for a “fair and just reason” pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 11(d)(2)(B), defendant waives her rights under Fed. R. Evid. 410, and the government may use her guilty plea, any statement made under oath at the change-of-plea hearing, and the factual basis statement in this plea agreement, against her in any proceeding.

5. Other Charges

If the court accepts this agreement, the government agrees to dismiss counts four and six of the first superseding indictment and agrees not bring additional charges against defendant based on any of the conduct reflected in the attached worksheets.

6. Each Party's Right to Withdraw from This Agreement

The government may withdraw from this agreement if the Court finds the correct guideline range to be different than is determined by Paragraph 2B.

Defendant may withdraw from this agreement, and may withdraw her guilty plea, if the Court decides to impose a sentence higher than the maximum allowed by Paragraph 3. This is the only reason for which defendant may withdraw from this agreement. The Court shall advise defendant that if she does not withdraw her guilty plea under this circumstance, the Court may impose a sentence greater than the maximum allowed by Paragraph 3.

7. Appeal Waiver

The defendant waives any right she may have to appeal her conviction on any grounds. If the defendant's sentence of imprisonment does not exceed the top of the applicable guideline range as determined by paragraph 2B, the defendant also waives any right she may have to appeal her sentence on any grounds. If the defendant's sentence of imprisonment is at least the bottom of the applicable guideline range, the government waives any right it may have to appeal the defendant's sentence. Nothing in this waiver bars a claim of ineffective assistance of counsel on appeal or by Collateral Relief under 28 U.S.C. § 2255.

8. Consequences of Withdrawal of Guilty Plea or Vacation of Conviction

If defendant is allowed to withdraw her guilty plea or if any conviction entered pursuant to this agreement is vacated, the Court shall, on the government's request, reinstate any charges that were dismissed as part of this agreement. If additional charges are filed against defendant within six months after the date the order vacating defendant's conviction or allowing her to withdraw her guilty plea becomes final, which charges relate directly or indirectly to the conduct underlying the guilty plea or to any conduct reflected in the attached worksheets, defendant waives her right to challenge the additional charges on the ground that they were not filed in a timely manner, including any claim that they were filed after the limitations period expired.

9. Parties to Plea Agreement

Unless otherwise indicated, this agreement does not bind any government agency except the United States Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of Michigan.

10. Scope of Plea Agreement

This agreement, which includes all documents that it explicitly incorporates, is the complete agreement between the parties. This agreement supersedes all other promises, representations, understandings and agreements between the parties concerning the subject matter of this plea agreement that were made at any time before the guilty plea is entered in court. Thus, no oral or written promises made by the government to defendant or to the attorney for the defendant at any time before defendant pleads guilty are binding except to the extent they have been explicitly incorporated into this agreement.

Notwithstanding the previous paragraph, if defendant has entered into a proffer agreement in writing or a cooperation agreement in writing with the government, this plea agreement does not supersede or abrogate the terms of any such prior written agreement.

This agreement also does not prevent any civil or administrative actions against defendant, or any forfeiture claim against any property, by the United States or any other party.

11. Acceptance of Agreement by Defendant

This plea offer expires unless it has been received, fully signed, in the Office of the United States Attorney by 5:00 P.M. on 02/28/2017. The government reserves the right to modify or revoke this offer at any time before defendant pleads guilty.
